THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.19717 of 1997

ORAL ORDER:

There is no necessity of going into all the details.

It appears, petitioner appeared before the selection committee constituted for the purpose of appointment of Lecturer in Public Administration in Vivek Vardhani College (Evening), but he was not selected. The grievance of the petitioner is that he is a Doctorate in Public Administration, whereas the respondents 3 and 4 are only M.Phil. in Public Administration.

I am of the opinion that this ground is not tenable unless and until the petitioner is able to show that the respondents do not possess minimum educational qualifications as required under the notification issued by the college. Further, the petitioner having appeared before the selection committee, now states that there was no properly constituted selection committee. I am of the opinion that such a ground is not available to the petitioner having appeared before the selection committee and subjected himself to the selection process. Apart from this, the selection committee also not made a party in this writ petition and adjudication at this length of time would not serve any purpose.

For all the above reasons, the writ petition is devoid of merits and liable to be dismissed and accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
